Rug Doctor® Announces Experienced Dallas Professional as Chief Financial Officer at Plano Headquarters

Daphne Teague to Join Carpet Cleaning Leader

PLANO, Texas (October 17, 2011) - Rug Doctor® (<http://www.rugdoctor.com/>), the manufacturer of the most convenient do-it-yourself hot water extraction carpet cleaning machines and products, today announced that Daphne Teague, CPA, recently joined the Plano, Texas-based company as Chief Financial Officer.

Teague brings nearly 30 years of experience in the industry to her new position at Rug Doctor as the face of the financial team. The majority of her time with past positions has been with Russell-Newman Brands (RNB) based in Denton, Texas, and Ernst & Young. Teague graduated summa cum laude from the University of North Texas (UNT) College of Business with Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in accounting.

Entire management, along with President and CEO of Rug Doctor, Tim Wall, enthusiastically welcomed Teague to the company in an internal memo to employees last week.

“We believe Daphne’s experience with capital structure, lenders, vendor relations, supply chain management, licensing and her overall business acumen will be a terrific asset to the company,” Wall said. “Just as important, we believe her demeanor will be a good fit with Rug Doctor’s Executive Team and fit in well with the company culture.”

Teague's responsibilities will include: providing leadership to the finance and accounting functions, partnering with the Rug Doctor team to achieve operational and financial excellence, financial strategy development and execution, contributing to the forward momentum of Rug Doctor and enhancing overall business capabilities.
